

ISHIKAWA

Japan

General View

DESCRIPTION

The Ishikawa Thermal Power Station completed in 1987 is the first imported coal fired power station on the island of Okinawa where electricity generation had relied entirely on oil. Since the island is frequently hit by typhoons, the power station is equipped with silos to store coal.

NAME OF CLIENT:

Electric Power Development Co., Ltd.(EPDC)

CAPACITY: 2x156MW

SERVICES:

Design

Construction(February,1984-March,1987)

Operation and Maintenance(March,1987-)

EPDC