

Personal Information Protection Policy

Basic Policy

Electric Power Development Co., Ltd., having a proper understanding of the importance of individual rights and interests and acknowledging as a social obligation the protection of the personal information of its customers and business partners and the ensuring of their trust , is taking the following actions.

- Because acts such as leakage, alteration, loss, improper use, or unauthorized disclosure of personal information that we possess will result in a loss of public confidence and have an enormous impact on the Company's business, directors and all employees will recognize the importance of, and their responsibility for, privacy and will act in sincere good faith.
- Officers and all employees will observe the laws concerning the protection of personal information and related internal rules and regulations, and will handle the personal information that they possess in a proper manner.

Electric Power Development Co., Ltd.
Toshifumi Watanabe, President