

Nikaho No.2 Windfarm Commenced Commercial Operation Commencement of commercial operation of 24th windfarm in Japan

Electric Power Development Co., Ltd. (hereafter “J-POWER”) announces that its project company (wholly owned subsidiary of J-POWER) has completed the construction works of Nikaho No.2 Windfarm and achieved commercial operation on January 24, 2020.

This windfarm had been under construction from July 2017 as the 3rd windfarm in Akita prefecture, 24th in Japan for J-POWER.

J-POWER’s current owned capacity for wind power in operation in Japan totals 530,560kW including 41,400kW of Nikaho No.2 Windfarm. Adding 86,132kW of two windfarms under construction in Japan and 214,250kW of one offshore windfarm under construction overseas, J-POWER’s global owned capacity for wind power amounts 830,942kW.

J-POWER continues to promote developing renewable energy including wind power in Japan and overseas utilizing our knowledge and experience.

1. Overview of the windfarm

Name	Nikaho No.2 Windfarm
Location	Nikaho city, Akita prefecture, Japan
Capacity	41,400kW (Enercon GmbH 2,300kW turbine x 18)
History	July 2017	Commencement of construction
	March 2019	Connection with grid and commencement of test operation
	January 2020	Commencement of commercial Operation

2. Location map

Nikaho No.2 Windfarm