

October 9, 2024
Electric Power Development Co., Ltd.

Be aware of suspicious e-mails purporting to be from J-POWER group executives or employees

There have been reports of suspicious e-mails in English purporting to be from J-POWER group executives or employees.

These suspicious e-mails may include a content that encourages to access certain URL or respond to the sender, but please be cautious that there is a risk of personal information fraud or virus infection.

Please note that these suspicious e-mails have no connection with J-POWER group, J-POWER group executives or employees, and please be aware that J-POWER group will not be liable for any damages resulting from such suspicious e-mails.